Erica Franzetti is an independent arbitrator and international disputes counsel. With a 25-year legal career, she has extensive experience in commercial and investor-State arbitration across a wide range of industries and jurisdictions. Her practice focuses on serving as an independent decision-maker and advising on complex international disputes, particularly in the energy, natural resources, and infrastructure sectors.

A fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCI Arb), Erica serves as sole arbitrator, co-arbitrator and chair of arbitral tribunals. Her linguistic fluency and cultural sensitivity, together with her command of both civil law and common law systems, enable her to conduct proceedings efficiently, fairly, and with procedural rigor. She has acted as arbitrator and counsel in proceedings under various arbitration rules, including the ICC, AAA, ICDR, LCIA, ICSID, and UNCITRAL Rules, and has substantial experience managing tribunals and drafting arbitral awards.

With a global practice in international arbitration, Erica has acted in matters involving a wide range of jurisdictions, including Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Croatia, the Dominican Republic, Ghana, Hungary, Mexico, Perú, the Philippines, and the United States. Her work encompasses disputes across diverse sectors, including hotel management, distribution agreements, financial contracts, intellectual property, transactions under the CISG, infrastructure and construction, concessions, telecommunications, road transportation, corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, consortia, joint ventures, venture capital investment, energy and natural resources, mining, oil and gas, liquefied natural gas (LNG) pricing, and electricity and nuclear power generation.

Erica has received prestigious recognition from leading legal directories and institutions, including Chambers and Partners, The Legal 500, Lexology (formerly Who's Who Legal), Latin Lawyer, and Best Lawyers, and has been named one of Latin America's Top 100 Female Lawyers by Latinvex. She regularly publishes and speaks on international commercial arbitration, investor-State arbitration, and dispute resolution strategy at international conferences and professional forums and has taught at leading institutions including Georgetown University Law Center and the University of Miami School of Law. She is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia, New York, and Brazil, and is fluent in English, Spanish, and Portuguese.
